Trial Court Opinion, 2/18/14, at 1-3. The trial court concluded Appellant's weight of the evidence claim meritless. The trial court held that "[t]he Commonwealth presented more than ample evidence that [Appellant] was driving under the influence[,]", and that "[Appellant's] video of the accident was consistent -5- J-S01023-15 with the testimony of the Commonwealth witnesses." Trial Court Opinion, 2/18/14, at 3. Our review of the record reveals that the trial court's factual findings are supported by the evidence of record. The trial court properly considered evidence that was not presented at the suppression hearing. At trial, Officer Stachler testified that based on his training and experience, the car in the photograph was a Toyota Corolla and that the driver was a white male. N.T., 11/26/2013, at 77. Additionally, the trial court was able to observe and hear the stipulated video during trial, and view it in context with other evidence presented at trial. Appellant's issues on appeal are devoid of merit. Accordingly, for the reasons stated above, we affirm the order denying Appellant's motion to suppress. Order affirmed. Judgment Entered. Joseph D. Seletyn, Esq. Prothonotary Date: 8/13
