She was also a director of the Jive Wing, and served as its president from 1929 to 1954. Early life and education Heather was born in Manchester, England. She started dancing as a child, and attended a ballet school. She was later asked to take part in a dance marathon by the parent committee of a school where she taught, and her dancing career as a teacher commenced. Heather's first marriage to George Yarrow of Chatham was short-lived, as George was frequently traveling with the American Dance Theater. She also had a daughter, Muriel, by George Yarrow before they ended their relationship. In 1923 Heather married 3e33713323
