Not only do we get to play games, eat cotton candy, and enjoy our treats we also get to meet some of the people in our community, and while they may not have family members with us, they do love having a fun night with us. My co-workers and I work up a game plan and kind of strategize with the line-up of activities that we want to have going on. The kids are so excited to go to the bat house, pumpkin patch, haunted house, lazer maze, trampoline park and it's so fun to see them enjoy something other than video games! We are always looking for volunteers, so if you want to volunteer for the day just email us and we will see what we can do for you!Our new issue, "After Bernie," is out now. Our questions are simple: what did Bernie accomplish, why did he fail, what is his legacy, and how should we continue the struggle for democratic socialism? Get a discounted print subscription today! One of the most frustrating aspects of what passes for mainstream politics these days is that so many of the solutions being proposed to the greatest problems facing us are, on their face, completely unworkable. Be it repealing Obamacare, ending the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), making Obamacare work, stopping the Export-Import Bank, ending the war on drugs, eliminating structural racism, or making a living wage a reality, it is easy to know why all these reforms will never pass — and what it would take for them to do so. Of course, one reason is because they're too smart and savvy to be taken

There have been no new planes or updates for some time, . april 5, 2011.The Legend of Tarzan (1936 film) The Legend of Tarzan (also released as The Adventures of Tarzan and The Black Arrow) is a 1936 American Western film directed by W.S. Van Dyke and starring Cornel Wilde as Tarzan, Mary Boland as Jane, and Frank Gaines as Professor Reed. Based on Edgar Rice Burroughs' story Tarzan of the Apes, the film is a remake of the 1920 silent film The Adventures of Tarzan (1922) starring Wallace Reid. Plot In the jungle a British officer is captured by the savage Apes who believe he is Tarzan. John Clayton (Wilde) agrees to save the officer if his chimp Tarzan will help him escape. Cast Cornel Wilde as Tarzan Mary Boland as Jane Frank Gaines as Professor Reed Leo White as Janius Paul Dupont as Timon Ralph Graves as Kerchak Holmes Herbert as Chimp Leona Holmes as Jane's mother Carleton Young as English officer Production For Tarzan of the Apes the studio bought the rights to Burroughs' novel, but, after the film's release, WB executives canceled all Burroughs' future work. The studio tried to rework the film and bring in a new writer to achieve a new ending, but the changes made were criticized by fans and Burroughs' relatives. Reception The New York Times film critic who reviewed the film on its opening called it an "unusually bad Tarzan movie" and said "The story is of little entertainment value, and the acting, in some instances, is very poor, though here and there in good acting is to be found." Box office According to Warner Bros 570a42141b
