Calculate the gain-loss at different time periods. View trade details in minutes. Daytrader Companion screenshots: Daytrader Companion, Live Chat, Email & FAQ Live chat Video Walkthrough Order Books Installing Daytrader Companion Download and extract the.zip file Run Daytrader Companion setup.exe I use Windows 7 x64 and Daytrader Companion would be compatible with that. All settings will be default but you have the option to change many of those. You will need a USB driver for your USB 2.0 to USB 3.0 speed card as well as a USB 3.0 to USB 2.0 card. If you don't have a USB 3.0 speed card you can use the Windows 7 USB 2.0 drivers for USB 2.0 speeds. The application also requires a.DAT file that includes an encrypted database. This database contains almost all of the action profiles. This file can be found in the application setup folder. You will be prompted to locate this file after the application is installed. You can manually locate this file or use the Windows 7 search feature to locate it as well. The application will install or un-install the drivers and various settings. You will need to be running the application to complete the install as well as required setup. For a best experience install Daytrader Companion on a fast computer.

Q: FormatExcel export not working properly When I run the code below, the excel file gets created but some of the columns are blank and all the rows are duplicated.

private void GetExcelData() { using (var stream = File.Create(Path.Combine(Server.MapPath("~/Export/newExcel.xlsx"))) { var workbook = new XmlWorkbook(XmlWriter.Create(stream)); var worksheet = workbook.Worksheets.Add("New"); worksheet.Cells.LoadFrom(GetExcelFileData(), aa67ecbc25
