A: From the regex demo, it can be seen the input you're working with has at least two successive duplicates of :. With the help of lookbehind (?Ryan Clark and Jason Lisk have already seen their love story come to life on CW's "The Flash." Now, the couple is hoping to see their own romantic comedy get a pick-up to series, too. "I really want that show, too," Clark told Billy Johnson. "I think it would be great if both shows got picked up." Clark said he's been talking about the project with Stephen Amell, who is still developing "Arrow" for the CW. "I have been talking to Stephen about it and I think it's really cool," he said. "It's an interesting, different twist on things." When Johnson asked if he and Lisk might have a chance to appear on "The Flash" someday, Clark was honest about his plans. "That's a great question! I have to go see Stephen. I'm not sure about that," Clark said. "It's not like I want to be on 'The Flash." "The Flash."
