From "The Legend of Heroes: Trails of Cold Steel" Series This Content Volume 69 Chapter 1: A Promise of Victory The following is the story of how I got involved in the Council of Seven. Should you follow my tale, I'll take you on a journey to the land of Erebonia and introduce you to the Holy Land of Britannia, the only refuge for those who stand for freedom and justice. From the stories of witnesses, I have created a narrative that will not only introduce you to Erebonia, but also take you on the path to your own destiny. There are some who call this fate and some who call it a world gone mad. It's true that Erebonia itself is at times shrouded in war. But the war is not the whole truth. In fact, the truth may even lie in Erebonia's darkest depths. In Erebonia, there is a place known as the Keep. The Keep is nothing more than a place of refuge for those who fear violence and who have found refuge in Erebonia. It is a place where the seven gods of Erebonia gather and hold court, where they hold their power over everything under the land. During the war that has engulfed Erebonia, the Keep has remained untouched by war. In the middle of the conflict, however, the Keep has fallen under the curse of Erebonia's greatest hero: Ramza. Ordinarily, even the mere mention of the name Ramza sparks such fits of rage amongst Erebonians that their tempers break. But Ramza was different. He took the Keeper and kept her prisoner, drove her into a corner. I cannot say precisely what he did to her, nor can I say that she was badly treated. All that I know is that all of Erebonia trembled in fear at the carcinoma of the testis: a 17-year experience at a single institution. Isolated carcinoma of the testis is rare and accounts for less than 1% of all testicular malignancies. To examine the impact of the introduction of the surveillance, epidemiology, and end results (SEER) Program on survival of patients with testicular tumors. This observational study included all patients who underwent treatment at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine/Montefiore Medical Center from January 1, 1988, through December 31, 2005. The Kaplan-Meier method was applied for survival estimation. The SEER data were used in determining survival. From January 1, 1988, through December 31, 2005, 211 patients were treated at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine/Montefiore Medical Center for testicular malignancies. The median age at treatment was 45 years (range, 12 to 87 years). Only 57% of the patients had pure testicular malignancy. Of the patients with pure testicular malignancy, 98 (52%) had seminoma, 43 (22%) had nonseminomatous germ cell tumor (NSGCT), and 45 (23%) had no evidence of germ cell tumor. The 10-year cancer-specific survival was 93% in patients with pure testicular malignancy, 88% in patients with seminoma, 70% in patients with NSGCT, and 69% in patients with no germ cell tumor. The median survival in all stages was 7 years. In a multivariate Cox model, the significant predictors of survival were stage (P

Freelance Contracts is an online RPG experience set in a deep world spanning fantasy setting. We have been working with the artists of the CERN-2D scene to create an immersive open world, deep combat system and a sandbox economy. By creating our own game engine we have been able to take what we love about what other games have to offer and integrate it into our own game. We strive to create the type of game experience that we wish to have ourselves. We hope that you will join us in this adventure and find your place in this world. We've created contracts that can be customized for each and everyone of you. We have made outfits that you can wear over your existing character. We have equipped you with different weapons and items. You can now upgrade your skills to earn additional customization options. Your character will be able to import contracts from previous sessions, which means that you'll be able to see how they did on their missions, the reputation they earned and more. It is in that respect that American Airlines (NASDAQ: AAL) recently announced a new way to do business. The company has placed a real and tangible value to the stakeholders, by making its on-time arrivals the key performance indicator to which it will measure its passenger connections. Here is what American Airlines has to say on the
