Court of Appeals of the State of Georgia ATLANTA, _____ March 31, 2015 The Court of Appeals hereby passes the following order: A15A0542. ANTHONY BRANDON CURTIS v. THE STATE. A jury found Anthony Brandon Curtis guilty of two counts of armed robbery. The trial court entered a judgment of conviction and sentenced Curtis to serve two consecutive terms of twenty years, with fifteen to serve in confinement and the remainder on probation. Curtis filed an untimely motion for new trial, and the trial court denied the motion. Curtis then filed a direct appeal, and his appointed appellate counsel failed to file a brief. We dismissed the appeal for failure to file a brief. See Case No. A13A0234 (decided May 3, 2013). Curtis subsequently filed a motion to dismiss his counsel and a pro se motion for new trial. The trial court denied the motion to dismiss counsel, but dismissed the pro se motion for new trial with prejudice. Curtis now appeals that ruling.¹ We, however, lack jurisdiction. “[A] direct appeal may lie from an order denying a motion for new trial only if the underlying motion itself is directly appealable.” Roberts v. State, 286 Ga. 532, 532 (690 SE2d 150) (2010). Because Curtis’s motion for new trial was denied pursuant to OCGA § 5-5-40 (a) (1), this Court lacks jurisdiction over his appeal of that order. See id. at 533-534; see also Perry v. State, 261 Ga. App. 91 (1) (581 SE2d 695) (2003) (direct appeal lies only from a judgment of conviction and a sentence of confinement and not from an order denying a motion for new trial); Lovelace v.
