Aids in Uganda, a country with a comparable level of wealth and living standards to those in the West, seems to have been relatively well tolerated by government or medical and research establishments. But, with unbridled growth of the pandemic there are fears of a social catastrophe that could unravel the social fabric, with devastating effects on the medical care that Ugandans have come to expect. This article discusses the implications of Aids, its effects in a developing country such as Uganda and the possible social and political changes in Uganda that the current crisis will bring. It is thus intended to provide a useful primer on the Aids situation in East Africa.Q: Displaying GPS coordinates on Windows Phone 8 I'm working with Windows Phone 8 SDK Beta and I'm trying to display GPS coordinates on a Windows Phone. Is there any way to do this? Thank you in advance. A: There is no way to display GPS information without using the Waze app. The only way to get those coordinates is if you use the Waze App. You can check the source code and use what you need. Here is a good MSDN article on the subject. Q: How to install and set up the Microsoft.NET Framework 2.0 on Windows 7 I have my Windows 7 64-bit system and I would like to know: How can I install the.NET Framework 2.0 (a 32-bit program), and how can I run it? A: I would suggest you to look into using the Windows SDK, which comes with the.NET Framework 2.0 already pre-installed, and has a command line compiler, MSBuild. You can also get additional command line tools from here. Here is the official Web page for the Windows SDK. I think it is not required to install any additional software. Here is the official 79a2804d6b
